HC upholds removal of teacher accused of sexual harassment of student

The Hindu Bureau NEW DELHI

The Delhi High Court has said the well-being of schoolchildren in sexual harassment cases is of utmost importance due to the long-term effects of such incidents.

A Bench of Chief Justice Satish Chandra Sharma and Justice Subramonium Prasad made the remarks while upholding the penalty of compulsory retirement of a physics teacher accused of sexually harassing a Class IX student.

The Bench said the act can have the effect of hindering normal social growth of the child and lead to various psycho-social problems, which could require psychological intervention.

Ad money: BJP, Congress welcome L-G's order; AAP brushes aside 'love letter'

BJP terms it biggest-ever advertisement scam, demands CBI inquiry; Congress's Ajay Maken says it was he who had first raised the matter in 2016; BJP governments spent ₹22,000 crore on ads: AAP

> he Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and the Congress on Tuesday welcomed Lieutenant-Governor Vinai Kumar Saxena's order asking the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) to pay ₹97.14 crore that was allegedly spent on political promotion in the guise of government advertisements. However, AAP termed it as another "love letter" from the L-G and said he had passed an "illegal order" outside his jurisdiction.

The three political parties entered a war of words after the L-G's order in which he asked the Chief Secretary to implement a 2016 order of the Committee on Content Regulation in Government Advertising (CCRGA), a three-member body formed by the Union Ministry of Information and Broadcasting on the directions of the Supreme Court.

The CCRGA, had in September 2016, found various Delhi government advertisements in violation of the SC guidelines on government advertising and had asked the Directorate of Information and Publicity to recover the amount spent on those advertise-

Hailing the L-G's order, Delhi BJP working president Virendra Sachdeva said, "Today they [AAP] are calling the L-G's order another 'love letter' to reduce the seriousness of the matter, but the truth is that this is a white paper of the Kejriwal government's corruption."

'Pay ₹675 crore'

Congress leader Ajay Maken said it was he who had first raised the matter in 2016 with the CCRGA and also approached the Delhi High Court, which directed the panel to look into the Delhi government's advertisements. He, however, said ₹675 crore should be recovered from AAP instead of ₹97 crore. Mr. Maken had also written to the L-G on October 4, requesting him to implement the CCRGA's order and recover the money from AAP.

Ramvir Singh Bidhuri, BJP MLA and Leader of Opposition in the Delhi Assembly, alleged that the AAP government had spent "more than ₹2,000 crore" on advertisements in the past seven years.

He also demanded a CBI inquiry into the "biggest advertisement scam of the country".

The Hindu Bureau NEW DELHI

The Capital registered a 'very poor' quality air on Tuesday, which was marginally better than the 'severe' category of air quality the city breathed a day earlier, according to Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB) data.

Delhi's air quality index (AQI) on Tuesday was 366, down from 410 on Monday, as per the CPCB's official bulletin. A higher value of AQI means an increase in air pollution. An AQI between 301 and 400 is termed "very poor", 401 and 500 "severe".

According to the Central government's Air Quality Early Warning System for Delhi, the city's air is likely to remain within the "very poor" category for the next three days.

As per the Central government-run monitoring agency SAFAR, the city's AQI is unlikely to improve till Friday due to the prevailing dense fog and cold wave conditions in the country's north-west

Ruckus in House as BJP objects to Kharge's comments at rally

HT Correspondent letters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: Members of the ruling Bharativa Janata Party (BJP) erupted in protest in both Houses of Parliament on Tuesday over Congress chief Mallikarjun Kharge's comments at a political rally in Rajasthan a day ago, disrupting proceedings, forcing adjournments, and demanding an apology.

Kharge, who took on the BJP over patriotism and contribution to the freedom struggle, stood his ground and argued that remarks made outside Parliament should not be raised in the House.

Minutes after proceedings started in the Rajya Sabha on Tuesday, BJP members sought an apology from Kharge with the leader of the House, Piyush Goyal, dubbing the Congress chief's comment as unparliamentary and demanded Kharge should not be presentj in the House till he apologises. "He made baseless remarks and tried to mislead the nation with untruths... I strongly condemn this and demand an apology from him." Goyal said. After Raiva Sabha Chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar urges the MPs to maintain decorum in the house amid ruckus over LoP in Rajya Sabha Mallikarjun Kharge's recent remarks against the BJP.

Independence, Mahatma Gandhi had called for disbanding the Congress and Kharge's behaviour showed what Gandhi had said "was true". The controversy was sparked by Kharge's speech on Monday during the Bharat Jodo Yatra in Rajasthan's Alwar town. The 80-year-old leader described the Congress's contribution to the country's independence and unity, issue be discussed and give notices, but they are still not ready for a discussion in Parliament," he added. In the Lok Sabha, too, BJP members demanded an apology from the Congress, forcing a brief adjournment.

Kharge, on his part, asserted that his statement was a political and in response to the allegation that the Congress was carrying out a Bharat Todo Yatra (Breaking India Yatra). He added: "If I repeat what I said outside, it will be difficult for them. Those who sought an apology (from the British during Independence) are asking for an apology from those who fought for the country's Independence. They accused the Congress of holding Bharat Todo Yatra, to which I responded by saying that Indira Gandhi and Rajiv Gandhi gave their lives for the country. Who has given life from your side?" disillusioned. This kind of display of conduct and behaviour gives us a very, very bad name," he said Speaking outside Parlia-ment, parliamentary affairs minister Pralhad Joshi said: "We strongly condemn the statement made by Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge in Rajasthan yesterday. It's an Italian Congress which is run-ning today. It is being said that he is a rubber stamp president." The BJP's attack, however, helped the Opposition forge unity and protest against the arrival of a team of the National Human Rights Com-mission (NHRC) in Bihar following the deaths of 70 people due to adulterated alcohol in Saran district last week.

Both the Rashtriya Janata Dal and the Janata Dal (United) wanted to raise the issue but found no chance. RJD MP Manoi Jha was the first to raise the issue and leaders of all parties, including Kharge, pleaded that Jha be allowed to speak. The chairman, however advised Jha to meet him in his chambers

J&K civilian killings HT Correspondent

JAMMU: Jammu and Kashmir Police announced on Tuesday that it has constituted a special investigation team (SIT) to probe the killing of two civilians in a firing incident outside an army camp in Rajouri town last week which resulted in protests by hundreds of local residents.

{ RAJOURI FIRING } TWO KILLED

The two civilians – Surinder Kumar and Kamal Kumar – were shot dead and a third, Anil Kumar, was injured on Friday morning near the gate of an army facility in Jammu's Rajouri town. Soon after the incident, angry local residents blocked the Jammu-Poonch highway and some threw stones at the military facility.

The army's Nagrota-based 16 Corps issued a tweet shortly after the incident and attributed the gunfire to "unidentified terrorists", but, in a handwritten letter with the signatures of the district administration, police and a senior army official, the corps assured compensation for those killed and added that "wrongful tweets" would be deleted.

Local residents say that a sentry opened fire in a case of mistaken identity but officials have refused to confirm this allegation

The five-member SIT was constituted by Rajouri Poonch range deputy inspector general of police, Haseeb Mughal. It will work under the supervision of senior superintendent of police (SSP) Choudhary Mohammad Aslam and will be headed by deputy superintendent of police (headquarters) Chanchal Singh. BELAGAVI: Both houses of the Karnataka assembly are set to pass a resolution on Wednesday stating that the border dispute with Maharashtra is settled, a dav after the government and Opposition in the state reached an agreement and chief minister Basavaraj Bommai said not an inch of land will be given up.

The resolution -- suggested by Bommai and agreed to by leader of Opposition Siddaramaiah -came days after Union home minister Amit Shah announced a committee with three ministers each from the two neighbouring states to prevent any escalation of the dispute

"The state's border was affixed on the day the states were reformed on the language basis. As far as the state was concerned. there was no border dispute with Maharashtra and the recommendations of Justice Mahajan Commission were final," the proposed resolution said. There was half-aday of discussion on the dispute in the ongoing assembly session in Belagavi on Tuesday.

During Zero Hour, Siddaramaiah raised the dispute. Bommai responded that as far as the state was concerned, the "border dispute is settled and the state will not give up an inch of land to Maharashtra". The state government will soon hold an all-party meeting on the matter, the chief minister added.

Bommai recalled an incident in June 1986, when Sharad Pawar of the Nationalist Congress Party, despite being prohibited from entering Karnataka, managed to come to Belagavi, hid in a house, and took part in the protest organised jointly by the Maharashtra

Ekikaran Samiti and the Shiv Sena. MES is leading the protests demanding the merger of Marathi-speaking areas in Karnataka

Karnataka's letter to Shah. which was written by the principal secretary to the state government, was vet another proof of the state's "tough" border argument in the Supreme Court, the CM said.

Several legislators, including from Belagavi district, participated in the debate. After the unanimous resolution is passed on Wednesday, it would be sent to the Maharashtra government, the Union government, and the the apex court, Bharatiya Janata Party leaders said.

Meanwhile, Kannada Organisations' Action Committee convener Ashok Chandaragi welcomed the state's stand on the issue. "Maintaining status quo or implementing the recommendations of Justice Mahaian must be accepted," he said.

Kannada organisations also welcomed the move of the government. "It is a good sign that at least the government bowed to the request of Kannadigas in border areas," said Deepak Gudaganatti, the Belagavi district president one of the outfits part of the protest.

ACHAN Dumping Site Stinks, Turns Life Of Dwellers Tough

Agencies

Srinagar: Javed Ahmad lives just a few meters away from Achan, a dumping site, who along with his family experiences all the foul smell as well as the consequences of the wastage, being dumped every morning within the vicinity.

While sharing his ordeal, Ahmad said the foul smell, infectious diseases and other related issues are a norm now in their locality. "We have been moving from pillar to post to seek some refuge from the prevalent situation, but other than fake promises, nothing has been done in this regard,' Ahmad said.

'The promises kept changing from shifting the dumping site to waste to energy plant. However, the ground reality remains unchanged for the people living here," he said, adding that forget about the relatives, even the residents don't want to return after leaving the locality.

"The foul smell continues to emanate from the dumping site around 24 hours while most of the residents here have developed stomach related issues now," he said.

"Such is the situation that nobody could even dare to eat anything on the road in our locality. Every step or measure taken by the concerned authorities for scientific dumping has failed to bring any positive results," he said and appealed to the concerned authorities to look into the matter at an earliest.

He said the construction in the entire area—Barwara, is banned, but one fails to understand how the number of residential houses has increased from just 15 to about 200 in the locality. "I don't understand who is giving them permission to construct the houses and also why the construction is being allowed when the area is being converted into the hub of wastage every day," he added.

However, SMC Commissioner, Athar Aamir said that already three sanitary cells have been constructed while the fourth is being constructed shortly, for which the tenders have already been floated and the work in this regard would be started in coming days.

He added that the locals will soon heave a sigh of relief as further measures are being taken to end their miseries.

'Besides, the DPR of bio mining project has been sent and once the approval is done, the work over it will also be started forthwith," he added-(KNO)

Anganwadi Workers Stage Protest Against HR Policy

Syed Mohammad Burhan

Srinagar: Scores of Anganwadi workers staged a protest at the Press Enclave against the recently approved HR policy by the administration for female Anganwadi Workers (AWWs) and Helpers working in the Integrated Child Development Scheme (ICDS) of J&K

The protesting Anganwadi workers said according to the HR policy the retiring age of the Anganwadi workers has been set 60, besides there are some clauses of the order which are not in the interest of workers.

'We are being told those Anganwadi workers who have attained the age of sixty years should sit at home, the move is unjustified and uncalled for " said an Anganwadi worker.

The protesting Anganwadi workers said whereas the retirement age for Anganwadi workers in New Delhi and Ladakh is 65 years, it is 60 years in the Union Territory of Jammu and Kashmir. They further said that after years of service, workers are being transferred from one ward to another.

"Our retirement age should be enhanced to 65 years to bring us at par with other Union Territories and status quo should be maintained with reference to our postings" they said.

Amid heavy sloganeering against the authorities, a few women fainted in the charged atmosphere

The Anganwadi workers further said some decades back when they joined their duties, the number of malnutritioned children was much higher and the credit of improving the health scenario in Jammu and Kashmir goes to them.

However, they said, by approving the HR policy the admiration has not only failed in acknowledging their contribution but also put a question mark on their credibility.

Another Anganwadi worker, speaking on anonymity, said decades back she had to make a choice between her job and her husband and she chose a job.

"My husband had told me to leave this job. Instead I refused and broke the wedlock, now I am left with nothing. We request the government to take back the HR policy" she said.

The protesting Anganwadi workers said they will not hesitate in bringing their children on the roads and will continue the protest until the order is revoked.

Pertinently, the government in November this year approved the proposal of a comprehensive Human Resource Policy to govern the engagement, leaves, promotion and other important aspects of this very vital work force of the Social Welfare department..

Skill Training On Sheep & Goat Farming Commences At SKUAST

Observer News Service

Srinagar: Sher-e-Kashmir University of Agricultural Sciences and Technology of Kashmir Tuesday commenced a week-long skill development programme on 'Profitable Sheep and Goat Farming Management Practices' for aspiring entrepreneurs in the sector at Shuhama campus

More than 25 aspiring entrepreneurs and sheep breeders from across Kashmir participated in the seven-day training being organised by the SKUAST-K's Mountain Research Centre for Sheep & Goat, Shuhama, under the sponsorship of the Union Ministry of Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises in its E-SDP Scheme.

Incharge Sheep Research Centre and Training Coordinator, Dr HA Ahmed, in the inaugural address, gave a detailed overview of the programme. In J&K, Sheep and Goat Sector has enormous entrepreneurial potential to engage unemployed educated youth considering the agro-geo-climatic conditions and food habits of the local populace. However, researchbased technologies vis-à-vis breeding, feeding, management and health care of the livestock need to be transferred from lab to land for profitability and sustainability of the sector, said HA Ahmad. Scientists working at the centre also participated in the programme and encouraged the vouth for venturing into this promising sector.

Workshop On 'Quality Enhancement Of University Publications' Held At KU

Observer News Service

Srinagar: Vice-Chancellor University of Kashmir Prof Nilofer Khan Tuesday inaugurated a workshop on 'Quality Enhancement of University Publications'

The day-long workshop was organised by the varsity's Directorate of Internal Quality Assurance (DIQA).

In her presidential address, Prof Nilofer said it is important to maintain the quality of University's publications, including the departmental journals, so that the reputation of both the University as well as the departments is not negatively impacted in any manner.

Saying that the University will form a broad-based editorial board of experts to monitor the quality of its publications, the Vice-Chancellor said the University's publications must have social impact leading to their better visibility and reach.

Div Com Reviews Progress Of Model Hamlets In Dal Lake

Observer News Service

Srinagar: The Divisional Commissioner (Div Com) Kashmir, Pandurang K Pole convened a meeting of officers to review the progress of a comprehensive plan for development of five hamlets as model villages in Dal Lake which will be replicated for other 34 villages with the passage of time.

Pertinently, the Divisional administration had proposed various initiatives to help the people of Dal Lake in adopting sustainable livelihood, developing tourism infrastructure and bring those hamlets on the map of the tourism circuit.

The meeting was attended by Director Handicrafts & Handloom, Director Tourism, VC, LCMA, Director Health Services, ADC Srinagar, officers of Agriculture, Horticulture, Floriculture, Fisheries, Animal Husbandry, Social Welfare, UDAK, Labour, PHE, PDD and other departments.

While reviewing the Department wise progress, Div Com exhorted on officers to expedite implementation the of proposed plans and schemes pertaining to concerned departments.

Div Com asked VC, LCMA to utilize machines for cleaning and widening of navigation channels besides he was asked to complete the construction of a centralized Sewage Treatment Plant.

Regarding development of public parks, Div Com asked the Floriculture Department to convert the land which

The Director H&H informed that the department has eighteen craft centers in Dal area which help locals to earn livelihood. Agriculture,

The Horticulture and Floriculture department were impressed to get the organic certification of fertilizers, pesticides has been made available after relocating some households to other places. VC, LCMA was also directed to demarcate the available land that could be developed into public parks. Showing the serious concern regarding use of Gillnet by locals in model villages which reduce the quantity of fish in water, Div Com asked all the concerned officers to enforce the complete ban on use of and insecticides used by Dal inhabitants besides implementing respective Centrally Sponsored Schemes and UT schemes.

Similar directions were passed to other departments for completion of their proposed plans in model villages of Dal Lake.

Meanwhile, Div Com directed all the departments to submit the report of all the actions taken in the five model villages.

From KO Archives Mehdi Hasan Anxious To Sing Again

Mubashir Hasan

AHORE- Severe mental stress, excessive use of pan with tobacco contents, smoking and fluctuating blood pressure are some of the factors which led to severe paralysis stroke to world's renowned singer and Ghazal Maestro, Mehdi Hasan who is currently under treatment at Sheikh Zaid Hospital here.

This is what his doctors said while talking to The Nation newspaper on Monday. This did not come as a surprise to the great singer as he had already suffered a mild stroke of paralysis almost a year back when he was in India in connection with some musical concert. He has been under treatment since then complaining weakness in his right leg, his son Kamran told this scribe. "I underwent a similar low intensity attack of paralysis as far back as in 1968 but recovered soon by the grace of God Almighty, Mehdi Hasan himself told in a stumbling tone while recalling his past medical history.

"The stroke affected left side of his brain where lies the speech area and thus paralyzed the rightside of the body including the tongue"', said Dr.Farrukh Iqbal who is closely monitoring the health of the great singer of the subcontinent. Khan Sahib is also suffering from asthma and has difficulty in breathing, he further said, adding that he is being nebulized every six hours to ease his breathing.
