PART A

FAIR DISCLOSURE OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

VII. NORMS FOR DISCLOSURE OF UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION (“UPSI”)

a) Prompt public disclosure of UPSI

The heads of the departments/functions of the Bank (“Departmental head”) or any other designated employee of the Bank who has UPSI which is proposed to be shared with the analysts, shareholders and media, shall submit such information to the Chairman and CEO for his advance approval. Where the disclosure of information is approved by the Chairman and CEO, a copy of the approval shall be forwarded to the Compliance Officer who shall further disseminate such price sensitive information to stock exchanges as required before sharing the same with any other person. The said information shall be promptly uploaded at the Bank’s official website in order to be accessed by the Investors and members of the Bank i.e. to make the information generally available.

b) Uniform, continuous and universal dissemination of UPSI to avoid selective disclosure

The Bank shall follow the below process for dissemination UPSI:

- i. Where any designated employee has any UPSI or any other information which may materially impact the price of the securities or, where such employee is not able to make an opinion about its impact, he shall report the same to the Chairman & CEO.
- ii. Then, the Chairman & CEO shall further analyze the said information in terms of the Regulations and if required, he may take the opinion of the external professional whether the information is UPSI or not.
- iii. After analyzing, the Chairman & CEO if he thinks fit shall forward the same to the Compliance Officer for its submission with the stock exchange in the format as prescribed in the Regulation or any other law as may be applicable to the Bank.
- iv. The above information shall be made public as early as possible in order to provide level playing field to all the investors.

c) Chief Investor Relations Officer (“CIRO”)

The Compliance Officer of the Bank shall be the Chief Investor Relations Officer for the purpose of these Regulations. The CIRO shall oversee corporate disclosures and deal with dissemination of information and disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information.

The CIRO shall be responsible for ensuring that the Bank complies with continuous disclosures requirements and overseeing and coordinating disclosure of UPSI to stock exchanges, on the website of the Bank and media.

d) Prompt dissemination of UPSI that gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise to make such information generally available.

If the information is accidentally disclosed without prior approval of the CIRO, the person responsible shall inform the CIRO or the Chairman and CEO immediately, even if the information is not considered price sensitive. In such event of inadvertent, selective disclosure of the price sensitive information, the CIRO shall take prompt action to ensure that such information is generally made available.

e) Appropriate and fair response to queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumours by regulatory authorities.

Where any designated employee finds any news report or rumours about the Bank, such employee shall immediately report to the Compliance officer who will verify the same in consultation with the Chairman and CEO of the Bank.

The Compliance Officer shall make replies to all queries or requests for verification of market rumours or any report published in the newspaper or any other print media shall be sent only after obtaining the approval of the Chairman and CEO. In the absence of the Chairman and CEO, the reply can be sent only with the approval of the person as may have been authorized by the Chairman in this behalf.

The Compliance Officer shall provide a prompt, fair and appropriate response to any queries or requests for verification of market rumours by the regulatory authorities including the Stock Exchange within 48 hours of receipt or where the stock exchange requires, within such time as may be required. Such response shall be sent to all Stock Exchanges, even if a query has been received from only one of the Stock Exchanges. The Chief Investor Relations Officer in consultation with Chairman and CEO shall be responsible for deciding whether a public announcement is necessary for verifying or denying rumours and then making the disclosure.

f) Ensuring that information shared with analysts, research personnel and investor groups of UPSI

- i. Only public information to be provided: The Bank shall provide only public information to the analysts/research persons/ investor groups/ large investors like institutions. Alternatively the information given to the analyst shall be simultaneously made public at the earliest by disclosing the same to the stock exchanges. The Bank shall endeavor to make disclosure to the stock exchanges about the schedule of analyst or institutional investor meet.
- ii. Simultaneous release of information: When the Bank organizes meetings with analysts/research persons/investor groups/large investors like institutions, the Bank shall publish transcripts or records of the proceedings of such meetings on its website after every such meet.
- iii. Handling of unanticipated questions: The Bank, being a listed entity should be careful while making corporate disclosures or dealing with questions that raise issues outside the intended scope of discussions. Unanticipated questions may be taken on record and a considered response given later. If the answer includes any UPSI, then before or simultaneously with responding, a public announcement should be made and posted on the website of the Bank.

g) Developing best practices to record meetings with analysts and research persons and other investor relations conferences.

In order to avoid misquoting or misrepresentation, it is necessary that all corporate disclosures shall be made either in writing or in cases of meeting with analysts, research persons, brokers or investors, at least two representative of the Bank be present at meeting and the discussion should preferably be recorded.

h) Handling of all unpublished price sensitive information on a need-to-know basis.

UPSI is to be handled carefully and shall not be passed to any person unless such information is required on a “need to know” basis, i.e. Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Bank who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information and such information shall not be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

i) The Bank with the approval of the Board of Directors may adopt the concept of 'Chinese Wall' in order to prevent the misuse of UPSI:-

- i. The Bank shall adopt a "Chinese Wall" policy which separates those areas which routinely have access to confidential information, considered "inside areas" from those areas which deal with sale/marketing/investment advise or other departments providing support services, considered "public areas".
- ii. The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any UPSI to anyone in public area.
- iii. The employees in inside area may be physically segregated from employees in public area.
- iv. Demarcation of the various departments as inside area may be implemented by the Bank.
- v. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of "need to know" criteria, under intimation to the compliance officer.

VIII. PRESERVATION OF "UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION"

Designated Employees shall maintain the confidentiality of all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. They shall not pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of Securities.

IX. LIMITED ACCESS TO CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Files containing the confidential information shall be kept secured. Computer files must have adequate security of log in and password etc.

X. PROHIBITION ON DEALING, COMMUNICATING OR COUNSELING ON MATTERS RELATING TO INSIDER TRADING.

Subject to the provisions of the Regulations, no insider shall:

- i) Either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person, deal in Securities on any stock exchange when in possession of any unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- ii) Communicate, counsel or procure, directly or indirectly, any unpublished Price Sensitive Information to any person who while in possession of such unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall not deal in the Securities.

Provided that nothing contained above shall be applicable to any communication required in the ordinary course of business or profession or employment or under any law for the time being in force.

PART B

CODE OF CONDUCT TO REGULATE, MONITOR AND REPORT TRADING BY INSIDERS

Applicability of this Part: This part of the Policy shall apply mutatis-mutandis to all the specified designated employees of the Bank while dealing in the securities of the corporate customers of the Bank.

XI. PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION”:

1. All information shall be handled within the Bank on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider’s legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations. Every designated employee shall follow the norms of ‘Chinese Wall’ as enumerated hereinabove.

2. Notional Trading Window

A virtual trading window which regulates trading of securities of the Bank.

Closure of trading window:-

Where any designated employee of the Bank has UPSI then such employee shall not trade in the securities of the Bank. Till such UPSI is made public, that period shall be called as period of closure of trading window.

Designated Employees shall not trade in the Securities of the Bank during the period mentioned below when ‘Trading Window’ shall be closed:

- i. From the date of intimation of the date of a meeting of the Board to the stock exchanges; and/or
- ii. From the date of intimation of the date of a meeting of a Committee of the Board to the members of such a Committee; where at any such meeting any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information including the following are to be considered:
 - (a) Declaration of Financial Results (quarterly, half-yearly and annual);
 - (b) Proposal in respect of issue of Securities by way of public/ rights/ bonus etc.
 - (c) Proposal in respect of significant expansion plans or execution of new large projects;
 - (d) Proposal in respect of amalgamation, mergers, takeovers, buy back;
 - (e) Proposals in respect of disposal of whole or substantially the whole of the undertaking;
 - (f) Declaration of dividends (interim and final);
 - (g) Any significant changes in policies, plans or operations of the Bank
 - (h) Any other event as may be notified.

The Trading Window shall open 48 hours after the information aforesaid is made public/furnished to the stock exchanges.

3. Designated Employees of the Bank shall conduct all their dealings in the Securities only in a valid Trading Window and shall not deal when the Trading Window is closed or any other period as may be specified by the Bank.
4. Designated Employees of the Bank shall be eligible to conduct all their dealings in the Securities on any day of the year other than the period mentioned hereinabove in this part of the policy.
5. The restriction mentioned above shall not be applicable in respect of exercise of an option under Employees Stock Option Scheme (ESOPs). However, shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be sold during the period mentioned above, when Trading Window shall remain closed.

XII. PRE-CLEARANCE OF TRADES

Designated Employees shall require prior clearance from the Compliance Officer in respect of purchase/ sale of Securities, exceeding 20000 shares in a month either in one transaction or in a series of transactions. Such purchase/ sale of Securities by the Compliance Officer shall require prior clearance from the Chairman. Purchase/ sale transactions, for which prior clearance has been obtained, shall be executed within seven days of such clearance.

Designated Employees and their dependents shall make pre-clearance application to the Compliance Officer in the format given in FORM-I. The application shall indicate the estimated number of Securities that the employee intends to deal in, the details as to the depository, with which he has a security account, the details as to Securities in such depository mode and such other details, as may be required by the Compliance Officer from time to time in his behalf.

An undertaking shall be executed in favour of the Bank by a Designated Employee /Officer incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:

- (a) That he/she does not have any access or has not received “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” up to the time of signing the undertaking;
- (b) That in case he has access to or receives “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/ she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his/her position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the Securities till the time such information becomes public.
- (c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Bank from time to time;
- (d) That he/she shall hold investments in Securities for a minimum period of six months.
- (e) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.

The pre-clearance shall not be necessary if the number of Securities to be traded are less than 20000 in a single or a series of transactions in a month.

Immediately on receipt of the pre-clearance application, the date and time of the receipt of the same shall be recorded thereon. The Compliance Officer shall process the pre-clearance applications and if the pre-clearance application is in accordance and in compliance with the provisions of this Code, the Compliance Officer shall communicate the pre-clearance immediately but not later than 48 hours from the time of receiving the application. In the absence of Compliance Officer, the Officer authorized by the Compliance Officer shall give the pre-clearance. A proforma letter of intimation of pre-clearance is annexed as FORM-II.

Designated Employees and their dependents shall execute their order in respect of Securities within one week after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within one week after the approval is given, the concerned Designated Employees shall obtain fresh pre-clearance.

All designated employees who buy or sell any number of shares of the company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All designated employees shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the company at any time.

In the case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned entities shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.

In case the sale of Securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing the reasons in this regard.

The Compliance Officer would maintain a register of Pre-clearance of trading of Securities and record therein the name and designation of the Designated Employee/ Officer submitting the application, date of application, date & time of receipt of the application, nature of the transaction, number of Securities, consideration value, name of the Dependent family member if the transaction is in the name of the dependent family member and date & details of the actual transaction. A proforma of the said register is given in FORM-III. It shall be the duty of the Designated Employee/ Officer to inform the Compliance Officer of the details of the actual transactions. A proforma of such intimation is given in FORM-IV.

No Designated Employee shall execute a contra trade within 6 months. However, subject to the compliance of the Regulations and this policy, the Compliance Officer is empowered to grant relaxation from this condition for reasons to be recorded in writing.

The Compliance Officer shall also maintain a record of “waiver of restriction on holding investment in the Securities for a minimum period of six months” and shall record thereon the name of the Designated Employee/Officer, details of Securities for which waiver is granted, date of waiver and the ground of the waiver.

XIII. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR TRANSACTIONS IN SECURITIES

All Designated Employees shall make disclosures to the Bank as detailed below:

- a) An initial disclosure in Form-B disclosing the total number of shares or voting rights in the Bank, held by him or his Dependent Family Member(s), and positions taken in derivatives by such person within two working days of his/her becoming a Designated Employee.

- b) Every promoter and designated employee of the Bank shall disclose to it the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees in Form C.

The Bank shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

Explanation. – For the purpose of clause (b), it is clarified for the avoidance of doubts that the disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure hereinabove, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified as above.

- c) The Compliance Officer shall maintain records of all the declarations in the appropriate form given by the Designated Employees /Officers for a minimum period of three years.

The Compliance Officer shall maintain a record of the initial disclosure, periodical disclosure and annual disclosure received above.

The Compliance Officer shall maintain a Register of Designated Employees /Officers as per FORM-V.

XIV. PENALTY FOR CONTRAVENTION OF CODE OF CONDUCT:

Every Designated Employee/Officer who trades in Securities or communicates any information for trading in Securities, in contravention of the Code may be penalized and appropriate action may be taken by the Bank.

Designated Employees /Officers who violate the code of conduct shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Bank, which may include wage freeze, suspension, ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans, or such other action as may be considered appropriate by Board /Chairman.

The action by the Bank shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of Regulations.

XV. INFORMATION TO SEBI IN CASE OF VIOLATION OF SEBI (PROHIBITION OF INSIDER TRADING) REGULATIONS, 2015.

If the Bank/Compliance Officer notices any violation of the Regulations, the SEBI shall be informed by the Bank.

XVI. PERIODICAL RETURNS TO CHAIRMAN

The Compliance Officer shall place before the Chairman on a Quarterly basis all the details of the dealings in the Securities of the Bank by the Designated Employees/Officers, if any, along with the accompanying documents that such person had executed under the pre-dealing procedure.

XVII. CONFLICT IN CODE

In the event of conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Code and the provisions of the applicable laws, the Code shall be construed and interpreted in consonance with the applicable laws and in the failure of such harmonic interpretation and construction, the regulatory provisions shall prevail.

XVIII. REVIEW OF THE CODE

The Board may in its discretion or as per the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 or Listing Regulations or other applicable laws, review or amend this Code, in whole or in part, from time to time but atleast on an annual basis.
