periods of time on the balcony where he was ultimately struck. a senior government official said, asking not to be named.

Taliban spokesperson Zabihullah Mujahid previously confirmed that a strike took place in Kabul on Sunday and called it a violation of "international principles".

A spokesperson for the interior ministry said a house was hit by a rocket in Sherpur, a leafy residential neighbourhood in the centre of the city. "There were no casualties as the house was empty," Abdul Nafi Takor, the spokesperson, said. White House spokesman John Kirby said the US did not have DNA confirmation of Zawahiri's death. "We're not going to get that confirmation," he said on CNN, describing "visual confirmation" along with other sources.

An official said that the US intelligence determined with "high confidence" that Zawahiri was killed. Kirby also said there was a small Al Qaeda presence remaining in Afghanistan. "We are still going to stay vigilant, we're still going to stay capable," Kirby told MSNBC, adding that the US had the capability to conduct a counterterrorism strike from afar.

"The message has been verv. very clearly sent not just to al Qaeda, but to anybody that might harbour them." Zawahiri's death raises questions about whether he received sanctuary from the Taliban following their takeover of Kabul.

The senior US administration official said senior Taliban officials were aware of his presence in the city, and said the US expected the Taliban to abide by an agreement not to allow Al Qaeda fighters to re-establish themselves in the country.

Although Biden did not men tion the Taliban in his televised address, Secretary of State Antony Blinken said "by hosting and sheltering" Zawahiri, the Islamist group had "grossly violated the Doha Agreement" which paved the way for America's withdrawal. Zabihullah, in turn, accused Washington of breaking the 2020 deal. "Such actions are a repetition of the failed experiences of the past 20 years and are against the interests of the United States of America, Afghanistan, and the region," he said.

Under the Doha deal, the Taliban promised not to allow Afghanistan to be used again as a launchpad for international terrorism, but experts believe the group never broke ties with Al Oaeda.

Former President Barack Obama joined lawmakers in praising the operation.

"It's possible to root out terrorism without being at war in Afghanistan," Obama said in a Twitter message. "And I hope it provides a small measure of eace to the 9/11 families and everyone else who has suffered at the hands of Al Oaeda. The US found out this year that Zawahiri's wife, daughter and her children had relocated to a safe house in Kabul, officials said. Later. Zawahiri was also identified there. In the last few weeks, Biden convened officials to scrutinise the intelligence. He was updated throughout May and June and was briefed on July 1 on a proposed operation by intelligence leaders. On July 25, he received an updated report and authorised the strike once an opportunity was available, the unnamed US official said.

that the tax on tooth powder was 17% earlier, which was brought down to 12% under GST. Tax on hair oil was reduced from 23.9% to 18%, on soap from 29.9% to 18%, on footwear from 21% to 18%, on paint from 31.5% to 18%, on sugar 6% to 5%, on washing machines 31.8% to 18%, and so on, she said.

The minister said both the government and the Reserve Bank are taking steps to bring down inflation below 7% and then further under 6%. The government has tasked the RBI with ensuring that the consumer price index (CPI)-based inflation remains at 4% with a margin of 2% on either side. "The Indian economy compared to the situation prevailing in our peer group economies and several developed countries is doing better. Our macroeconomic fundamentals are strong. Nobody is in denial about price rise. We are not running away. The government has adopted a targeted approach, based on groundlevel inputs, to tackle retail inflation which is ruling at around 7%," she said. Sitharaman went on to compare the taxes levied by various states prior to the GST regime and when she mentioned West Bengal, Trinamool Congress (TMC) MPs staged a walkout from the Rajya Sabha after the Chair did not allow their leader to raise a point of order for mentioning the state's name. Derek O'Brien of the TMC asked the finance minister why the Indian rupee was depreciating despite US inflation rate being higher than India's rate. "We know that the rupee has jumped up 28 times. In the US, inflation is at 9%. In India. inflation is at 7%. I want to know from the finance minister as to why the rupee is depreciating, because in the US, 9% has peaked off," he said.

To this, Sitharaman replied that there is no collapse in the value of the rupee. "The cur-rency of a country does not just get determined by inflation. There are several other parameters... And actually, if vou compare the Indian rupee versus other currencies, it is appreciating in its manner."

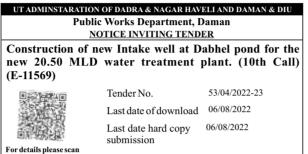

She said that the Indian economy compared to the situation prevailing in peer-group nations and even developed countries is "definitely much better"

"Bangladesh is demanding a loan of $4.5 billion from the IMF because they are facing a balance of payments problem. Sri Lanka is asking the IMF for $3.5 billion. Pakistan is in total asking the IMF for $7 billion. India has complete reserves, our macroeconomic fundamentals are perfect." she said Participating in the debate, Aam Aadmi Party MP Raghav Chadha said energy tax, which is levied on fuels such as petrol and diesel, is one the highest in the world and has a cascading effect on the common peo-

PELOSUS THE HIGHEST-RANKING AMERICAN POLITICIAN TO VISIT TAIWAN SINCE 1997

> That came shortly after the last major crisis in the Taiwan Strait, when China lobbed missiles into the sea near ports and then-President Bill Clinton sent two aircraft carrier battle groups to the area. Pelosi will visit Taiwan's parliament Wednesday morning, have lunch with President Tsai Ingwen and also meet with democracy activists, according to local media reports. The unannounced stop in Taiwan comes after Pelosi led a congressional delegation to Singapore and Malaysia. Taiwan remains the most sensitive issue between the US and China, with the potential to one day spark a military conflict. Biden said in May that Washington would intervene to defend Taiwan in any attack from China. although the White House later clarified he meant the US would provide weapons, in accordance itself.

The family members of a 9/11 survivors group expressed gratitude to US President Joe Biden. saying it was a "significant step" in their years-long battle for justice and accountability.

The 9/11 Justice, a grassroots organisation comprising survivors, first responders, and family members who lost their loved ones in the September 11, 2011 terror attacks in the US, said the step was particularly meaningful to the 9/11 community who continued their battle for justice.

Also, a 5% tax is imposed only on hospital rooms that have a rent of ₹5,000 and above... There is also no tax on customer cheques," she told the Upper House in a speech that went on for about an hour and a half.

Hitting out at the government's critics, Sitharaman compared the prices of onions, tomatoes and potatoes during UPA-II with those under the current NDA government. She also listed out a number of items to defend the GST regime to state that the prices of several essential items decreased with the introduction of GST in the country. She told the Upper House that there were more than 229 items with 28% GST, which has now been reduced to about 28 items. "Items are being lowered from a higher tax rate to a lower tax rate. Tuesday night. Beijing also announced military drills in different areas surrounding the main island of Taiwan later in the week.

China regards Taiwan as part of its territory and had vowed an unspecified military response ahead of Pelosi's visit. President Xi Jinping told President Joe Biden last week he would "resolutely safeguard China's national sovereignty and territorial integrity" and that "whoever plays with fire will get burned"

"We are going to make sure that she has a safe and secure visit," John Kirby, a spokesman for the White House National Security Council, said on CNN. "We will not be intimidated or deterred from all of our other security commitments in the region because of the Chinese rhetoric or even some of their actions.

Traders braced for bad news ahead of the visit, with stocks sliding and haven assets such as the yen and Treasuries climbing. Taiwan faced cyberattacks ahead of Pelosi's arrival, with the presidential office saying it suffered a 20-minute barrage in the early evening hours that was 200 times worse than usual. Pelosi is the highest-ranking American politician to visit Taiwan since then-House Speaker Newt Gingrich did so in 1997.

Assam CM hits back, slams 'fake' FIR by Jharkhand MLA

'Sarma took him to Coal Minister for trade union matter

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT GUWAHAT

Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma on Tuesday slammed Jharkhand Congress MLA Kumar Jaimangal for filing a "fake" first information report (FIR) embroiling him in a bid to topple the Jharkhand Mukti Morcha-Congress government in the eastern Indian State.

"Fake FIR in Jharkhand. The so-called FIR looks like Congress asking Ottavio Quattrocchi to file a case against Bofors," the Chief Minister said in a tweet tagging a Twitter post by Assam's Information and Public Relations Minister Pijush Hazarika.

about the baseless allegations by Jharkhand @IN-CIndia MLA @KumarJaimangal," Mr. Hazarika said in the first of three tweets, claiming Mr. Jaimangal made a fake allegation that the three Jharkhand Congress MLAs "arrested" in West Bengal with a huge amount of cash had lured him to meet the Chief Minister of Assam. Five days before filing the "fabricated FIR", Mr.

Sarma took Mr. Jaimangal to the residence of Coal Minister Pralhad Joshi in Delhi at 9 a.m. on July 26 "in order to help him in his trade union-related matter", Mr. Hazarika said.

He claimed Mr. Jaimangal had been regularly meeting Mr. Sarma. "He Jharkhand MLA] [the should face the law for making a fraudulent allegation against the Chief Minister of Assam and against those tribal [Congress] MLAs," he said.

NSCN (I-M) marks 25 years of Naga ceasefire

'No solution yet to political issues'

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT GUWAHAT

The National Socialist Council of Nagalim (Isak-Muivah) has rued the lack of progress in the Naga peace process after 25 years of signing a ceasefire agreement with the Central government.

The extremist group observed 25 years of signing the "Indo-Naga" ceasefire agreement at Choumukedima near Dimapur, Nagaland's commercial hub on July 1. The ceasefire between the outfit and the Centre came into effect on August 1, 1997.

The Centre and the NSCN (I-M) leadership had held several rounds of talks before signing the Framework Agreement in August 2015 that was expected to pave the way for peace in Nagaland and the Naga-inhabit ed areas beyond in three adjoining States in the northeast. A statement issued by the NSCN (I-M) said retired Lt General Amarjeet Singh Bedi, the chairman of the Ceasefire Monitoring Group, attended the function to mark the 25 years the ceasefire. Representatives of most Naga social and rights organisations attended the function too. "All expressed concern over the long years of the Indo-Naga ceasefire, which is yet to find a solution to the Naga political issue," the outfit said.

"Twenty-five years of ceasefire is not a joke. But the NSCN is still struggling to solve the problem," top NSCN (I-M) leader V.S. Atem said.
